OLD BUSINESS

A. PANHANDLING

Council member Encil Webster stated he felt the panhandling near the I-75 ramp portrayed a negative image for the City of Dry Ridge.

City Attorney Michael Mulvey could not find where soliciting is a crime except prostitution or taking bribes.

Michael Mulvey advised Council some of the cities such as Louisville and Cincinnati had to get specific such as "inside a hotel".

Michael Mulvey stated he would research this further.

B. RYAN PROPERTY

Council discussed the condition of this property at 14 Gilbert Avenue.

Mayor Clay Crupper stated he had talked with Mr. Ryan and had even mowed the property.

City Attorney Michael Mulvey stated he was currently drafting a letter to be signed by Codes Enforcement Officer to attempt to get this resolved.
